IL Institute of Technology Scholarships for Engineering and Architecture Students

Every student who applies to IIT is considered for two scholarships, Heald and University Scholarships, which offers up to $10,000 per year. In addition, once students submit their FAFSA application (Free Application for Federal Student Aid: www.fafsa.ed.gov) then students will be considered for an IIT Need Based Grant. Also, IIT provides additional funding to students through participation in National Action Council for Minorities in Engineering (NACME: www.nacme.org).

Contact Jerry Boyle, VP Provost (boyle@iit.edu) for more information on IIT technology scholarships.
